vs.

BETO FOR TEXAS, BETO O'ROURKE, DEMOCRATIC VICTORY PAC, INC, and
ACTBLUE LLC,*Defendants.*Case No. 1:22-CV-05998*COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES*JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff, Jorge Alejandro Rojas, ("Plaintiff") brings this action under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA"), 47 U.S.C. § 227, Beto for Texas, Beto O'Rourke, Democratic Victory Pac, Inc, and ACTBLUE LLC ("Actblue"), (collectively "Defendants"), and alleges based on personal knowledge and information and belief:

INTRODUCTION

1. As the Supreme Court has explained, Americans passionately disagree about many things. But they are largely united in their disdain for robocalls. The government receives a staggering number of complaints about robocalls—3.7 million complaints in 2019. The States likewise field a constant barrage of complaints. For nearly 30 years, representatives in Congress have been fighting back. As relevant here, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, known as the "TCPA", generally prohibits robocalls to cell phones and home phones. Barr v. Am. Ass'n of Political Consultants, 140 S. Ct. 2335, 2343 (2020).
2. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for violations of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227 and its implementing regulations, 47 C.F.R § 64.1200.
3. This case involves a campaign by Defendants which placed illegal, campaign-related pre-recorded and automated texts to Plaintiff's telephone number, which were not consented to.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over the claims herein under 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants. The wrongful conduct giving rise to this case occurred in, was directed to, and/or emanated from this District. Plaintiff resided within this district when the calls were made.

STATUTORY BACKGROUND

14. The TCPA makes it unlawful to make calls to any cellular or residential line using an artificial or prerecorded voice, or an automatic telephone dialing system, without the call recipient's prior express consent. See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b); In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27 F.C.C. Rcd. 1830, 1844 (2012).
15. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive such automated or -pre-recorded calls. See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).
16. "A text message to a cellular telephone, it is undisputed, qualifies as a 'call' within the compass of § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii)". Campbell-Ewald Co. v. Gomez, 577 U.S. 153, 156, (2016).

17. In 2013, the FCC required prior express written consent for all autodialed or prerecorded telemarketing calls (“robocalls”) to wireless numbers and residential lines. It ordered that:

[A] consumer’s written consent to receive telemarketing robocalls must be signed and be sufficient to show that the consumer: (1) received “clear and conspicuous disclosure” of the consequences of providing the requested consent, i.e., that the consumer will receive future calls that deliver prerecorded messages by or on behalf of a specific seller; and (2) having received this information, agrees unambiguously to receive such calls at a telephone number the consumer designates.[] In addition, the written agreement must be obtained “without requiring, directly or indirectly, that the agreement be executed as a condition of purchasing any good or service.[]”

In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27 F.C.C. Rcd. 1830, 1844 (2012) (footnotes omitted).

18. The FCC has explained that its “rules generally establish that the party on whose behalf a solicitation is made bears ultimate responsibility for any violations.” See In re Rules & Regulations Implementing the TCPA, 10 FCC Rcd. 12391, 12397 (1995).

19. Under the TCPA, individual party Defendants are personally liable for the acts and omissions alleged in this Complaint.

20. “Non-emergency prerecorded voice or autodialed calls to [the destinations enumerated in 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)] are permissible only with the prior express written consent of the called party.” This includes political calls. See FCC Enforcement Advisory: Tel. Consumer Prot. Act Robocall & Text Rules – Biennial Reminder for Pol. Campaigns About Robocalls & Text Abuse, 31 FCC Rcd. 1940, 1941 n.6 (2016).
